

Auburn Alehouse Craft Brews gold digger ipa (auburn, california) $8 (22oz) – “Pale & crystal malts provide the backbone & golden hue, while Magnum, Simcoe & Chinook hops do the dancing on your tongue. Late hop additions to the kettle & aging on the “dry hop” give our India Pale Ale hop aroma & flavor worth digging for!” 6.3% Alc fool’ s gold pale ale (auburn, california) $8 (22oz) – “Foolish amounts of North America’ s finest pale malted barley infused with a ton of Pacific Northwest hops sets this west coast strong pale ale apart from others. Our pale pours bright golden in color with a fragrant, dense, foamy head. Sharp, yet well balanced on the palate, Fool’ s Gold is not your ordinary Pale Ale.” 7.8% Alc imperial ipa pu240 (auburn, california) $8 (22oz) – “At 100 bittering units, PU240 captures the explosive hop flavor and aroma necessary to achieve a Critical Mass that you won’ t find in other high-hop ales. A classified and combustible amount of Summit and Galena hops along with a double Dry-hop bombardment of Simcoe, Columbus and Nugget contribute to PU240’ s high rate of spontaneous hop fusion.” 8.0% Alc imperial red ale hop donkey (auburn, california) $10 (22oz) – “Hop Donkey imperial red ale has a deep red hue thanks to the highly kilned crystal and roasted chocolate malts. Intense hop flavors and aromas form a concoction of North West “C” hops with a touch of Amarillo. Hop Dokey’ s 85 IBU’ s are balanced by a smooth caramel malt character that keeps you praying for more.” 9.0% Alc zz hop triple indian pale ale (auburn, california) $11 (22oz) – “An intense floral and piney aroma with explosion of hop flavor quickly turns to sharp bitterness followed by a brief encounter with malted barley” .” 9.4% Alc

old prospector barleywine-style ale (auburn, california) $15 (22oz) – “With over 6 months of aging, this “wine-strength” ale had been greatly enhanced by its long slumbering contact with the Zinfandel soaked barrels. A bouquet of soft oak, plumb & raisin give way to a peppery Zin profile which balances nicely with complex malt and gentle hop presence.” 10% Alc

Loomis Basin Brewing Co. Craft Brews golden eagle mandarin wheat (loomis, california) $8 (22oz) – “American style unfiltered wheat beer infused with locally sourced whole mandarins. This beer is effervescent and extremely refreshing. Finishes clean with a gentle orange tartness. Perfect for waking up the taste buds.” 4.3% Alc alohawk a.k.a “big boy” pale ale (loomis, california) $8 (22oz) – “Fiery golden orange in color, sweet malt fills the mouth redolent of honey, pear and fresh apricot. The finish is so smooth and well rounded, its strength is deceiving. Great with a variety of foods!” 8.0% Alc vindicator ipa (loomis, california) $8 (22oz) – “Big hop aroma fills the nose with tangerine, grapefruit and a hint of pine. Caramel and Munich malts balance out the beer by adding a full body and a touch of sweetness. The dry hopping in this brew imparts the citrusy hop flavor all the way to the finish.” 6.5% Alc macgowan’ s scottish ale (loomis, california) $8 (22oz) – “This “Wee Heavy” Scottish Ale boasts a rich, dark color a medium body. Light on the hops, this malty ale finishes clean and delicious, tied to its Scottish heritage.” 6.5% Alc avenger xx ipa (loomis, california) $10 (22oz) – “This beer is a beauty to behold, looks just like a sunset on a warm spring day. Big bilowy off-white head that you could probably float a dime and a nose of dried apricot, fresh floral hop and spruce. The hops roll over the tongue like a sports car hugging a mountain road, the bitterness firmly in place here.” 6.5% Alc seasonal* harvest ale (loomis, california) $10 (22oz) – “This ale is a true celebration of the hop harvest, using unkilned fresh, wet hops within 24 hours of harvest. Wet hops retain all of their oils and contribute a delicate, ethereal flavor exuding flowery, fresh grass, and notes of citrus.” 6.8% Alc
